Our Code of Practice
on Complaints Handling Procedure

SSE Airtricity
Foreword

We would like to take this opportunity to present our Electricity Code of Practice on Complaints Handling Procedure.

At SSE Airtricity we are committed to meeting the needs of our customers and our Codes of Practice informs our customers on the range of support services available.

We invite you to read on and find out more about the services we offer.

The code is compliant with the minimum standards as set out by the Utility Regulator.

These Codes of Practice are here to make sure our product and services meet the needs of our customers.

Code of Practice on Complaints Handling Procedure

First class customer service is vital to us. However, sometimes we make mistakes. If we fail to offer excellent customer service, we will try to fix the problem and make sure it does not happen again.

We value customer feedback and promise to regularly review our procedures.
We will always aim to resolve your complaint as quickly and effectively as possible, usually the same day. If we are unable to resolve your complaint there and then we will give you a timeline for resolution and will contact you regularly to keep you informed of the progress. At a maximum we will aim to fully resolve your complaint within 3 months.

If you are not happy with the response you receive, you can escalate your complaint to a Supervisor who will review your complaint with you. If we have still not resolved your issue or you are unhappy with the outcome, you may request for your issue to be escalated further to a Team Manager. Should your issue remain unresolved, your complaint can be referred to a Senior Manager by emailing complaints@sseairtricity.com or via letter to

Standards of service

Telephone complaint

We will answer your call quickly, log your complaint and try to resolve it immediately. However, if we cannot solve the problem on the same day, we will make sure we respond within 5 working days. Where a full response is not possible within 5 working days, we will contact you to advise of this, the reason, and when you will receive a full response. At a maximum we will aim to fully resolve your complaint within 3 months. Calls will be charged at local rates from any landline in Northern Ireland, calls made from mobile phones will cost more.

Written / Email complaint

If you write a complaint to us through email or letter, we will endeavour to acknowledge a receipt of your complaint within 5 working days. We aim to resolve all complaints as early as possible. We may respond by telephone, unless you request a written response.
Where a full response is not possible within 5 working days, we will contact you to advise of this, the reason, and when you will receive a full response. At a maximum we will aim to fully resolve your complaint within 3 months.

Our complaints procedure

- All complaints are logged and noted on your customer account.
- We handle your complaint in confidence. Your details remain private.
- We pass your complaint to the relevant department to deal with.
- You will receive a response within 5 working days.
- Depending on the complaint, we may reply either by phone or in writing.
- We will aim to fully resolve your complaint within 3 months.

Are you of Pensionable Age, Disabled or Chronically Sick?

If you are of pensionable age, disabled or Chronically Sick, we will endeavour to make it as easy as possible for you to make a complaint. If you wish to make a complaint, you can avail of the following options:

- Phone
- Post
- Email
- Webchat

We will also arrange a customer service agent to contact you by any medium you requested at a time that suits you to ensure that the complaint is resolved in a prompt and appropriate manner.

We make sure that your rights under the Data Protection Act are always observed. If you ask us to change your details, we do it promptly and ensure we keep up to date records.

“When resolving your complaint we may issue an apology, an explanation of what happened and/or take action to fix any issue. If we fail to meet our service commitments to you in our Code of Practice on Complaint Handling, where applicable we will pay you £20 as a sign of our commitment to you, our customer.”
Taking your complaint further

If you are still unhappy after giving us the opportunity to resolve your complaint, you can contact the Consumer Council for Northern Ireland. This is an independent body with statutory responsibilities to represent the interests of electricity consumers, including taking up complaints relating to electricity. Any customer can utilise this scheme at no cost to themselves. Your right to go to court if you deem the solution unsatisfactory is not affected by this procedure. Contact the CCNI at:
